

KAYAK - DSA Transparency Report 2026

About This Report

At KAYAK, our mission is to make it easier for people to experience the world. We believe that travel can bring out the best in humanity. Travel promotes a better understanding of different cultures and ways of life. We also believe in and work towards making travel a force for good in the world - one that enriches people's lives through a range of experiences, big and small. As a travel platform. It is at the core of our activities to facilitate travel experiences centred on our customers and underpinned by our values.

Our long-held values as well as our guidelines and terms and conditions for all users of our platform - travellers and supply partners - are designed to foster safe and welcoming travel experiences for all. To maintain an environment and ensure the safety of our travellers and supply partners, we take action upon content that violates the law, our Content Guidelines and Terms and Conditions.

As required under the Digital Services Act (DSA), this report provides insights into the content moderation activities that we engaged during the reporting period of January 1, 2025 to December 31, 2025, including the volume and nature of content removed from our platform.

Section 7 - Statement of content moderation

Information about content moderation
Own initiative moderation
Summary of the content moderation engaged in at our own initiative	KAYAK's long-held values, along with our terms and conditions for all users of our platform, both travelers and supply partners are designed to foster safe and welcoming travel experiences for everyone. To maintain this environment and ensure the safety of our travelers and supply partners, we take action against content that violates the law or our terms and conditions.
Meaningful and comprehensible information regarding the applied detection	Our keyword detection and rule-based threshold models swiftly review guest reviews. Most content is approved within seconds and goes live on KAYAK. Content not approved by our keyword detection is sent to our moderators for further review when potential guidelines are violations are detected. Approved content is accessible on our platform and apps, while policy-violating content is not published. Our decision not to publish content can be appealed, or the content can be resubmitted.
Use made of automated means
Summary of the use made of automated means for the purpose of content moderation	KAYAK employs automated keyword detection to identify inappropriate user reviews and hotel responses, such as those containing profanity. If no inappropriate keywords are detected, the content is automatically approved. However, if inappropriate keywords are found, the content is flagged for human review
Qualitative description of the automated means	Reviews are scanned for inappropriate keywords, such as profane, discriminatory, and derogatory terms. If no inappropriate keywords are detected, the content is automatically approved. However, if inappropriate keywords are found, the content is flagged for human review by our in-house content moderation team, who will then decide whether to approve or reject the review
Specification of the precise purposes to apply automated means	Reviews are scanned for inappropriate keywords and personal information. If no inappropriate keywords are detected, the content is automatically approved. However, if inappropriate keywords are found, the content is flagged for human review. Our system checks more than 100,000 keywords in over 40 languages.

Specific elements of the human resources dedicated to content moderation
Qualifications of the human resources dedicated to content moderation	The KAYAK content moderation team consist of a Senior Director, and a small team of engineers. All with over 10 years experience in designing content moderation systems.
Training given to human resources dedicated to content moderation	When new policies are introduced, we provide training presentations to the KAYAK content moderation team to familiarize them with the new content policies.
Support given to human resources dedicated to content moderation	Internal employees can reach out to the employee assistance program that provides counselling services, practical information and digital content to support employees' mental, physical, and social well-being.
