

Glovo Statement on the Digital Services Act

The Digital Services Act (the “DSA”) is a European Union Regulation which aims to create a safer digital space, protecting the fundamental rights of users, while establishing a level playing field for online intermediaries in their role of connecting consumers with goods, services, and content.

Glovo, a subsidiary of Delivery Hero SE and part of the “Delivery Hero Group”, is fully committed to promoting a secure digital environment and tackling the dissemination of illegal content, as well as the societal risks that disinformation or otherwise harmful content may generate, in accordance with the DSA.

Information on average active monthly users

Pursuant to Article 24 (2) of the DSA, online platforms shall disclose information on the average monthly active recipients of the service in the Union, calculated as an average over the period of the past six months.

The Delivery Hero Group has calculated the average monthly active recipients of its platform services in accordance with the relevant provisions of the DSA and the guidance provided in Recital 77. Please access the information provided on Delivery Hero’s website here.

Single Point of contact for the Digital Services Act

Pursuant to Article 12 of the DSA, online platforms shall designate a single point of contact to enable recipients of the service to communicate directly and rapidly with them, by electronic means and in a user-friendly manner. foodora’s point of contact for these purposes is dsa@glovoapp.com.

Please write the phrase “DSA Regulation” at the title of your email. We suggest you use the Spanish or English language. However, we will make the best effort to communicate with you in any other language if required.
